Quote of the Week:

"(120) Since everything is interrelated, concern for the protection of nature is also incompatible with the justification of abortion. How can we genuinely teach the importance of concern for other vulnerable beings, however troublesome or inconvenient they may be, if we fail to protect a human embryo, even when its presence is uncomfortable and creates difficulties? "If personal and social sensitivity towards the acceptance of the new life is lost, then other forms of acceptance that are valuable for society also wither away."

- Pope Francis, Laudato Si, new Encyclical on care for God's creation.

Notes from Fr. Sean

Bryce Lungren will be ordained as a deacon on Friday, June 26th, at 5 p.m. in the Cathedral by Bishop Thomas. Please join me in praying for Bryce during this holy time as he approaches ordination. Also, everyone is welcome to be there at the Cathedral to witness his ordination and to pray for him and the other ordinands.

Bryce will be helping as deacon in the coming weekend Masses. He will also give the homilies during his ordination weekend here on June 27th and June 28th.

Happy Father's Day to all Holy Cross dads! May God abundantly bless you and may St. Joseph pray for you and protect you as you follow Christ and lead your children to love Our Lord and His Holy Church.

The K of C is heading up the trimming of our lilac bush in the backyard by the parking lot, on Saturday, June 27th, starting at 9 a.m. There is a sign-up sheet near the entrance of the Church for anyone who would like to generously volunteer to help. This will help with visibility and allow for greater ease for those parking near the lilacs.

Please keep in your prayers the repose of the soul of Lisa Price, Bryce's relative who recently passed away. May she rest in Christ's peace.

Thank you again for all the donations for Vacation Bible School and for all who worked so hard to make it a great success.

Scripture Passage of the Week:
 "He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?""
 - Mk 4:39-40
