Quote of the Week:
 "I remember about seven years ago, I was suicidally depressed. I did not want to live, I could not even think of a reason to go on. Just utter blackness all around. I came across one of Mother Angelica's books. She helped bring me out of the darkness with her firm faith, wisdom and love. It made all the difference and with the Virgin Mary's help, I have a whole new life in Christ today. A solid joyful life! Thank you Mother Angelica!"

Scripture Passage of the Week:
 "Many signs and wonders were done among the people at the hands of the apostles. They were all together in Solomon's portico. None of the others dared to join them, but the people esteemed them. Yet more than ever, believers in the Lord, great numbers of men and women, were added to them. Thus they even carried the sick out into the streets and laid them on cots and mats so that when Peter came by, at least his shadow might fall on one or another of them. A large number of people from the towns in the vicinity of Jerusalem also gathered, bringing the sick and those disturbed by unclean spirits, and they were all cured."

- Acts 5:12-16

PRAY FOR OUR SEMINARIANS

Lord Jesus, we ask your special blessing on those preparing for the priesthood in our seminaries. We pray that they will grow in faith, hope and love. Give them courage and perseverance and be their constant companion as they prepare to serve you and your people with the fire of your love. Make them holy as you are holy. Amen.

Notes from Fr. Sean!

Rest in Peace, Mother Mary Angelica, foundress of EWTN. May your soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, rest in peace.

Please pray in gratitude for the soul of Mother Angelica and for EWTN, which she founded. Mother was an inspiration to countless souls who were drawn into the beauty of the Catholic Faith through EWTN media. Well done, good and faithful servant! Rest in Peace.

Special thanks to all who helped with the Easter Egg Hunt which was a great success!

I will be away this coming weekend giving a young adult retreat at the Seattle Archdiocesan Retreat Center. Please pray that it will be filled with many graces for the young adult retreatants. Thank you.
